. All these petitions are allowed to be withdrawn. However, all contentions are expressly kept open. It would be open for petitioner to urge them before Magistrate either during the course of the proceedings before him or even by taking out appropriate application. Petitioners in W.P.488 of 2004 and 1952 of 2005 are senior citizens. They are permanent resident of Mumbai. Magistrate shall take into consideration this factor and grant them exemption from appearance during the course of proceedings. Considering the fact that the matters are pending for more than eight years, trial is expedited.
